

C-Curity is an independent Security company providing man guarding and security guarding services which offer a range of personable, effective, and bespoke security services.

We take great satisfaction in offering a comprehensive variety of security management services and are dedicated to constantly raising our standards and contents.

C-Curity provides security services for both public and private sector domains including Retail, corporate, Construction and event Security.

C-Curity policy is to offer its clients timely and reasonably priced security services.

Services

C-Curity is dedicated to provide top-notch security services that guarantee the protection and welfare of our customers, their belongings, and the neighbourhood. We promise to:

- Provide dependable, accommodating, and competent services.
- Uphold the greatest levels of honesty, diligence, and knowledge - Constantly enhance our policies and procedures to adapt to changing security requirements.
- Promote an environment that values excellence, responsibility, and client satisfaction.
- Adapt to applicable laws, rules, and industry specifications.

Our objective is to earn the trust and confidence of our clients, and to be recognized as a leader in the security industry.

Objective criteria:

To meet this objective Quality Management System QMS is to be up to date and effective for that reason, as well as to meet the requirements of the Private Security Act of 2001, BS EN ISO 9001, BS 7858, and BS 7499.

Offerings:

This policy offers a structure for setting and evaluating quality goals. It also contains a pledge to adhere to legal, regulatory, and customer standards and to continuously enhance the efficiency of the quality management system. Because the purpose of our QMS is to assist us give our customers confidence, all our employees are required to apply and communicate the quality policy. Also helps to guarantee that staff members understand, implement, and maintain the policy.

We will periodically evaluate this policy to make sure it is appropriate and consistent with our dedication to ongoing improvement.